

The possibilities in life are infinite, but we often lose track of that while living in the busyness of our lives. At some point we start to ask, “Is this all there is?”. If you’ve reached that point in your journey, let me assure you there’s more...so much more.

Let me help you find the possibilities that make you smile and wake up every day with energy and purpose. Maybe you want to improve or change your career, your relationships or just find the things that make you feel happy and give a sense of purpose again.

Once we identify what you want, we’ll set the goals and start to address the obstacles, real or perceived, that are holding you back. I’ll help you move forward teaching you how you can address whatever is stopping you from reaching out and discovering your infinite possibilities. You can find your purpose and achieve your goals. Along the way I will teach you how you can address whatever is stopping you from reaching out and discovering your infinite possibilities.

We will meet weekly for 45 minutes via Zoom. You will have the option to record the calls so that you can refer to them later. Depending on what we’re addressing there may be worksheets, resource lists, etc. that I share with you that will help you on your journey.

To get started email me at djbastian2020@gmail.com to set up a 30-minute consultation call on Zoom. During this call we’ll discuss where you’re at and what you are hoping to get out of coaching. If we are a good fit, you can select the package you want, and we’ll get your weekly meetings scheduled.
